William Wordsworth’s Conception of Poetic Creation and the Motif of Nature in his Personal Poetry

Verena Hoster
7. Semester
Anglistik, Politologie, Psychologie, Islamwissenschaft
Contents.

I. Introduction. 1

II. Autobiographical vs. Personal Poetry. 2

III. Wordsworth’s Conception of Poetic Creation. 6
   a.) The Personality of the Poet. 6 b.) The Gifts Necessary for the Creation of Poetry. 7 c.) The Difficulties of Poetic Creation. 9 d.) The Object of Poetry. 10
   e.) Wordsworth’s Ideal Reader. 11

IV. The Motif of Nature in Wordsworth’s Personal Poetry. 13
   a.) The Development of Wordsworth’s Love for Nature. 13
   b.) Wordsworth as a Pupil of Nature. 15 c.) Wordsworth’s Animism of Nature. 16
   d.) Wordsworth’s Mystic Experience of Nature. 18

V. Conclusion. 20

VI. Bibliography. 21